

Flow switches // Accessories

Cable socket with two LEDs

Connection cable

| Order code                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                     |                    |                               |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------|-------------------------------|
| Accessories                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                     | Length             | Order number                  |
|  | Connection cable with 4-pin cable socket M12 x 1, sheathing material PUR, shielded, (T <sub>max</sub> = 80 °C) - UL-approval                                        | 3 m5 m10 m | XVT2053XVT2009XVT2070 |
|  | 4-pin cable socket M12 x 1 angle type, unassembled                                                                                                                  |                    | VT1331                        |
|  | Cable socket with two LEDsSwitching voltage 24...230 V AC/DC ±20 %Ambient temperature -20...70 °Cfor retrofit / replacement of cable socket without LED |                    | XVH958                        |